Lesson 31 – A Night on the Lake

Based on Matthew 14:22-33; Mark 6:45-52; John 6:14-21.

1)	Where does our lesson begin today?
	John 6:10-11 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was

Would Christ never assert His authority as king?

6) What words of wisdom did Jesus give to the disciples earlier that day?  John 6:12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the  that remain, that nothing be lost.
The disciples had that day witnessed the wonderful works of Christ. It had seemed that heaver had come down to the earth. The memory of that precious, glorious day should have filled ther with faith and hope. Had they, out of the abundance of their hearts, been conversing together it regard to these things, they would not have entered into temptation.
7) Did the disciples have an easy trip to Capernaum?  Matthew 14:24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, with waves for the wind was contrary.
A violent tempest had been stealing upon them, and they were unprepared for it. It was a sudden contrast, for the day had been perfect; and when the gale struck them, they were afraid They forgot their disaffection, their unbelief, their impatience. Everyone worked to keep the boatrom sinking.
8) How long did they struggle to get to shore?  Mark 6:48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the se and would have passed by them.
Jesus had not forgotten them. The Watcher on the shore saw those fear-stricken men battling with the tempest. Not for a moment did He lose sight of His disciples. With deepest solicitude His eyes followed the storm-tossed boat with its precious burden; for these men were to be the ight of the world. As a mother in tender love watches her child, so the compassionate Master watched His disciples. When their hearts were subdued, their unholy ambition quelled, and in numility they prayed for help, it was given them.
9) How did the disciples react? Matthew 14:26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were trouble saying, It is a; and they cried out for fear.
At the moment when they believe themselves lost, a gleam of light reveals a mysterious figure approaching them upon the water. But they know not that it is Jesus. The One who has come for their help they count as an enemy. Terror overpowers them. The hands that have grasped the oars with muscles like iron let go their hold. The boat rocks at the will of the waves; all eyes are riveted on this vision of a man walking upon the white-capped billows of the foaming sea.
<ul> <li>10) How did Jesus calm their fears? Mark 6:50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. </li> <li>11) What did Peter do? Looking unto Jesus, Peter walks securely; but as in self-satisfaction he glances back toward his companions in the boat, his eyes are turned from the Saviour. The wind is boisterous. The waves roll high and come directly between him and the Master; and he is afraid. For a moment Christ is hidden from his view, and his faith gives way. He begins to sink

Walking side by side, Peter's hand in that of his Master, they stepped into the boat together. But Peter was now subdued and silent. He had no reason to boast over his fellows, for through unbelief and self-exaltation he had very nearly lost his life. When he turned his eyes from Jesus, his footing was lost, and he sank amid the waves.
15) What promise did the LORD promise to Israel?  Isaiah 43:1-2 But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.
When trouble comes upon us, how often we are like Peter! We look upon the waves, instead of keeping our eyes fixed upon the Saviour. Our footsteps slide, and the proud waters go over our souls.
It was on the point where he thought himself strong that Peter was weak; and not until he discerned his weakness could he realize his need of dependence upon Christ. Had he learned the lesson that Jesus sought to teach him in that experience on the sea, he would not have failed when the great test came upon him.
16) How does this passage end?  Matthew 14:32-33 And when they were come into the ship, the wind  Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a thou art the Son of God.

Can you see God never takes His eyes off of His children?

Would you like to see and do AWESOME things?

When is it safe to look away from Jesus?

The night of horror was succeeded by the light of dawn. So shall it be for us 😉
